Claims 1-14 (Cancelled)

15. (New) A reinforced coal-based cellular product, comprising:

a matrix of coal-based cells reinforced with at least one layer of a fibrous carbonaceous material, wherein said coal-based cellular product includes a carbon foam having a first density and a second density, wherein said first density of carbon based cells is greater than said second density of carbon based cells, and wherein said carbon foam is formed from bituminous coal having a swell index ranging from about 3.5 to about 5 and wherein said fibrous carbonaceous material is selected from the group consisting of a non-woven two dimensional mat having random in-plane fiber orientation, a chopped fiber, a non-woven two dimensional mat having a random in-plane fiber orientation, a two dimensional woven mat, a knitted mat, a prepeg of continuous unidirectional roving with a predetermined resin, or filler material formed into a two dimensional sheet.
